Empowering Tudela: LGU Receives 2022 CBMS Data

Date of Release: April 5, 2024

Reference No.: PSAMISOCC-PR-2024-06

05 April 2024, Tudela, Misamis Occidental - In a significant stride towards informed governance and community empowerment, the Local Government Unit (LGU) of Tudela proudly received the data of the 2022 Community-Based Monitoring System. The ceremony, held on April 3, 2024, served as a moment of collective commitment and collaboration, marking a pivotal juncture in Tudela's journey towards data-driven decision-making.

The CBMS stands as a cornerstone of evidence-based policy formulation, offering comprehensive insights into the socio-economic landscape at the grassroots level. CBMS empowers local communities by gathering data on various indicators, enabling targeted interventions and inclusive development strategies.

During the ceremony, representatives from the PSA joined hands with LGU Tudela to formally transfer custody of the 2022 CBMS data. This exchange symbolized a commitment to transparency and accountability, as Tudela takes on the responsibility of utilizing this invaluable information for the collective welfare of its constituents.

The ceremony concluded with a sense of optimism and purpose, as LGU Tudela reaffirmed its unwavering commitment to leveraging data as a catalyst for positive change. With the 2022 CBMS data as their compass, they embark on a new chapter of progress, resilience, and prosperity for all Tudelanons.
